

Regarding the proposed 60 meter band--It is suggested that only a very narrow CW, RTTY, data mode sub band be allocated. The reason is that much of the need for this band is due to the shared status (with Broadcast) of the 40 meter band relative to phone operation. Relief in this regard may be many years away if ever. A spacious phone sub-band will help alleviate the current problems on 40 meters.

Arnold P Stein, WB4FSV